

Siglind Bruhn
Messiaen's Explorations of Love and Death

Musico-poetic Signification in the "Tristan Trilogy" and Three Related Song Cycles

Table of Contents

Preface	7
Introduction	9
Part I — LANGUAGES AND METAPHORS OF LOVE
The Ambiguities of Desire	15
The Beloved and God	15
The Song of Songs: Eros versus Longing for Union with God	18
Fin' amors and Spirituality in the Troubadour Tradition	21
Rougemont on Religious Aspects in Medieval Concepts of Love	25
Mystic Readings of the Tristan Myth	30
An Unlikely Impetus	33
Languages of Devotion, Magic, and Awe	35
Visual and Verbal Inspirations	35
Surrealistic Juxtapositions and Syllabic Sound Patterns	37
Music's Obligation as a Language	39
Modes of Limited Transposition	42
Symmetries Horizontal and Vertical, Visual and Spiritual	44
The "Boris Motif" and the effet de vitrail	46
Processes of Expansion	48
A Word on Colors, Resonances, and Birdsong Transcriptions	53
Part II — GOD PRESENT IN ALL THINGS
Poèmes pour Mi	57
Loving a Woman and Loving God	57
Antiphons of Sublimated Conjugal Love	62
Nature and Its Jewels	70
Moving on to the True Home	75
Whose Servant?	80
Messiaen's Musical Subtext in the Poèmes pour Mi	87
Chants de terre et de ciel	89
Companion and Guardian Angel	100
The Innocent Child	104
A Man's Hell and Heaven	109
Messiaen's Musical Subtext in the Chants de terre et de ciel	115
Trois petites Liturgies de la présence divine	117
Turning Inward	121
God Present in Christ	130
Omnipresent in Love and Grace	137
Messiaen's Musical Subtext in the Trois petites Liturgies	148

Part III — FATED LOVE, A DEMANDING PATH TOWARD GOD

Harawi: chant d'amour et de mort	155
Green Dove, Limpid Pearl	158
Piroutcha and the Violet of Love	164
Dancing, Swirling, Leaping Stars	173
The Dazzling Grandeur and Solace of Death	183
Messiaen's Musical Subtext in Harawi	195
Turangalila Symphony	197
A Vengeful Venus and a Five-dimensional "Play of Time"	200
Two Love Songs	205
Three Cosmic Projections	209
Two Contemplations of Love's Superhuman Aspects	220
Two Hymns of Joy	226
Messiaen's Musical Subtext in the Turangalila Symphony	230
Cinq Rechants	233
The Magic Spaces of Incipient Love	236
Isolde the Healer	243
The Cave of Splendid Isolation	246
Consummation	251
Looking back	253
Messiaen's Musical Subtext in the Cinq Rechants	258
Appendix: Myths, Stories, and Poems Featured in the "Tristan Trilogy"	261
I Tristan and Isolde	261
II Other Mythic Tales of Love, Fate, and Death	263
III Inhuman Horrors and the Fateful Female	267
IV The Generous and Welcoming Lover	271
Bibliography	277
List of Illustrations	281
List of Poems Quoted in Full	284
Index	286
About the Author	288